

Fossil Record File

Competition!

- Win
- a years free GSNZ membership PLUS
 - a copy of "Harold Wellman: A Man Who Moved New Zealand" by Simon Nathan

Answer the questions below and pop this form into the box at the FRF stand at the Geosciences '06 conference.

Use the FRF website - www.fred.org.nz - to answer the questions

Additional forms and hints at www.fred.org.nz/geosciences06.jsp

1. What year was the Fossil Record File established?
2. What is the prefix for FR numbers from Niue?
3. What are the three types of localities that can be registered?
4. In which masterfile area is backlog processing complete?
5. What was locality D43/f6505 first registered as?
6. Who are the two people that have edited locality C44/f7519?
7. What is the number of the State Highway approximately 1.3km due north of locality T24/f69?
8. What is the FR number of the locality with a Paleontology record with lab number GNS GS 14079?
9. Who collected the locality in NZMS260 sheet S16 with the bivalve "Cucullaea attenuata"?
10. What is the name of the drillhole drilled by TAG Oil?
11. How many localities have moderate weathering, bedding thickness > 120mm and are dark red-brown in colour?
12. How many localities have moderate weathering and bedding thickness > 120mm, or are dark red-brown in colour?
13. How far is it from the eastern end of the Palmerston North airport runway to the closest FRF locality (to nearest 100m)?
14. What was the date of collection of the most northerly locality within a NZ mainland masterfile?

Name: _____

FRED Username: _____

Rules

1. The competition is only open to Geosciences '06 conference delegates.
2. You must be a registered FRED user to enter. Registration is free - click on the link at www.fred.org.nz.
3. You may only enter once.
4. If no-one answers all questions correctly the winner will be drawn from the group of most correct answers.
5. GSNZ membership prize - existing GSNZ members will be re-imbursed for 1 years membership at next renewal, non-members will receive a new 1 year membership.